

The following is a list of locations where short-term vacation rentals are prohibited through development standards or judicial order. The City of Henderson will not register a property for a short-term vacation rental if located in the following developments.

If you operate a short-term vacation rental at a location listed below, you are subject to enforcement actions of Title 19.35 of the Henderson Municipal Code.

- Properties within the Inspirada development.
- Properties within the Cadence development.